

Cannes, June 28th, 2010

Hotels, restaurants and relaxation : News, novelties, promotions, suggestions ...

The new addresses of the summer are numerous and diversified. The opportunity to discover Jean-Luc Pelé's second shop, the arrival to Cannes of Mauboussin and Sandro or still the new trendy bars as Les Marches, or the beach of Baôli. A certainty : June shows new names on the rue d'Antibes.

➤ SHOPS

L'Occitane en Provence – 54, rue d'Antibes- Cosmetic and perfume shop (opening May 2010)

1976, the history begins in the Provence, when Olivier Baussan creates l'Occitane. He is inspired by the soils and the know-how of the Mediterranean Sea to create care as well as natural and authentic, effective and greedy flavors. Previously placed rue Meynadier, l'Occitane moves to rue d'Antibes in a quite new shop with provincial scents and decoration.

Tel : 04.93.39.99.23

Mauboussin – 69 rue d'Antibes – Jeweler's store (opening May 2010)

After Place Vendôme and the Champs-Élysées, Mauboussin, the big Parisian Jeweler since 1827, settles down rue d'Antibes to dazzle the eyes of the visitors with its fine ladies creation of rings, earrings, watches, necklaces and bracelets full of know how and ... love.

Their names ? « Night of love », « Chance of Love », « Because I love her », « Eternal », etc. ...

Tel : 04 93 38 88 42

Pain de Sucre – 7 rue d'Antibes - Swimsuits and feminine lingerie (opening May 2010)

Pain de Sucre was born in Marseille in 1985, under the inspiration of two men, creators of materials, printed matters and colors. They imagined a timeless woman.

An atmosphere of well-being and escape, such is the desire of the house since its creation.

Pain de Sucre has an audacious personality, a spread and subtle femininity, bikinis, push-up, sexy girls looks that takes its place of residence in Cannes and its rue d'Antibes.

Tel : 04 91 92 50 50

Myshop Cannes — 10 rue Jean Riouffe - Mellow Yellow exclusivity (opening May 2010)

« Mellow Yellow » references to a famous song of the 60's, this play on words expresses the flexibility, the humor, the cheerfulness and the variety of the colors which will become the signature of the brand. Marie Muller chose for the shop in Cannes to represent the brand exclusively and proposes the new spring and summer collection (bags, shoes, ...) from Monday to Saturday, between 10 am and 7:30 pm, non-stop.

Tel : 04 93 39 63 20 - mellowyellowcannes@orange.fr

Jean-Luc Pelé – 42 Rue d'Antibes - Pastry and chocolate factory – (opening May 2010)

Jean-Luc Pelé's Workshop ceaselessly looks for new flavours to create recipes without limits to creativity. Macarons have a prestigious place, not far from 22, of which some with the most amazing flavours : champagne, banana grooves, passion, basil, apricot, lavender, which are similar to a piece of short-live art. The Workshop also counts 30 differently flavoured chocolates, for amateurs of strong sensation, made by craftsmen in front of the consumers.

For his second shop, Jean Luc Pelé takes for place of residence the rue d'Antibes, offering his flavours to the largest number of visitors.

Tel : 04 93 39 89 46

Contact presse :

Elisabeth Lara, Responsable presse Palais des Festivals et des Congrès.
Tél. : +33(0)4 92 99 84 12 – fax : +33(0)4 92 99 84 25 – lara@palaisdesfestivals.com

Under - 2 rond-point Duboys d'Anger – Male lingerie shop (opening May 2010)

New lingerie, swimsuit and pyjamas shop for men only, has just opened between the rue d'Antibes and La Croisette. The design decorated shop, proposes an assortment of articles adapted to certain age brackets : 18/25, 35/70, as well as products adapted to gay clientele.

Tel : 06 16 90 57 40

Sandro – 101 Rue d'Antibes – Ready to wear – (opening May 2010)

Behind this brand hides an adventure, a passion. Evelyne Chétrite opened 4 years ago her first shop Rue Veille du temple in Paris. The success is immediate. The brand counts about sixty shops today and still gets bigger with the installation of the shop rue d'Antibes. The creativity, the energy and the sincerity and especially the envy to make women more attractive characterizes the brand.

Tel : 04.93.38.49.42

www.sandro-paris.com/

➤ BARS – HOTELS – RESTAURANTS - BEACHES

Les Marches – 1 Jetée Albert Edouard - Lounge Bar, Disco (opening June 2010)

Opened since June 5th, Les Marches is the new glamorous place of the prestigious Palais des Festivals. Les Marches is a space mixing two atmospheres, a terrace-lounge bar to savor a sunset in music starting at 7 pm, and a Club offering an exceptional view on the old harbor until dawn.

Opened every evening during summer, and every Thursday, Friday and Saturday from September to May.

Tel : 07 60 17 20 10

www.lesmarches-club.com contact@lesmarches-club.com

Press Contact : Bruno Buschino : 06 50 73 16 33

Le Marvin's – 9 rue Rouguière – Restaurant (opening June 2010)

Magalie Banovic welcomes you in this new traditional restaurant situated between rue Meynadier and Félix Faure. The service is warm and thoughtful, the cooking well-kept. Tel : 04 93 99 44 05

Chez Nana – 6 rue Louis Blanc – Salad bar (opening June 2010)

On the Forville market, a new salad bar which also proposes tapas and express breakfasts. Opened from Monday to Saturday from 7:30 am until 9:00 pm and Sunday from 7:30 am to 2:00 pm.

Tel : 04 93 99 81 40

N° 18 by Micka – 7 rue des Batéguiers – Dining bar (opening May 2010)

Newborn child of the bars of Cannes' Golden square, N°18 is a dining bar in a cosy and jazzy atmosphere. We can, from the hour of the apéritif, settle down on the terrace to sip a good cocktail while taking advantage of the last hours of the azurean sun. A plasma screen will allow all to watch the soccer world cup games. The WiFi is accessible free of charge to the customers of the N°18. Opened every day from 5 pm.

Tel : 06 22 92 34 28

Press Contact : Adrien Guellec - Tel : 06 61 16 15 22

Karement Sushi – 1 rue des Mimosas - Sushi Restaurant (opening May 2010)

Proposes breakfast, noon and evening sushi mix menus with champagne cocktail (on reservation). Opened from Monday to Saturday from 9 am to 10 pm with possible home deliveries.

Tel : 04 93 38 47 55

www.karement-sushi.com

Contact presse :

Elisabeth Lara, Responsable presse Palais des Festivals et des Congrès.
Tél. : +33(0)4 92 99 84 12 – fax : +33(0)4 92 99 84 25 – lara@palaisdesfestivals.com

Baôli Beach - 50 Boulevard de la Croisette – Beach (opening May 2010)

The Baôli Beach is as its name indicates, the beach of the famous Baôli club of Cannes.

Ideally situated between the Carlton and the Majestic, on the former « Noga » beach.

Baôli Beach is a place of charm which welcomes you for sunbathing, lunch or to have an apéritif in the evening.

Tel : 04 93 43 04 32

Reservation.plage@baoli.com

Press Contact : 04.93.43.04.32

Chez Thérèse – 88, Rue Meynadier - Brasserie Bistrot (opening May 2010)

In the heart of Le Suquet, in the city of Cannes, Chez Thérèse embody the conviviality of a real French bar with at the stoves a lover of French traditional cooking. In a smart frame without ostentation, typical of the real Parisian bars, where the chief-cook makes us rediscover traditional dishes. The restaurant is endowed with a terrace of about forty seats. Chez Thérèse is above all the pleasure to find the real taste of things.

Opened every day from 7 pm.

Tel : 04 92 99 19 09

reservation@cheztherese-cannes.com

Contact presse :

Elisabeth Lara, Responsable presse Palais des Festivals et des Congrès.
Tél. : +33(0)4 92 99 84 12 – fax : +33(0)4 92 99 84 25 – lara@palaisdesfestivals.com